LANDSCAPES

... the Khomas Highland, an oft-forgotten haven of nature so close to Windhoek;
an enchanting tract of mountains and savannahs,
laced with valleys and ephemeral watercourses, undulating between 1,800 and 1,200 metres...

WILDLIFE

... superb indigenous game populations–
the great kudu with its massive corkscrew horns;
the mountain zebra with its dazzling stripes;
warthog, gemsbok, hartebeest, blue wildebeest;
the secretive leopard, the nomadic cheetah...

warm
HOSPITALITY

... an intimate atmosphere in the family farmhouse;
personal attention to detail and individual guiding;
comfortable guest rooms and a spacious garden;
hearty, German-Namibian cuisine;
enjoyable evenings around the fire...

ACTIVITIES

... stalking indigenous game on foot;
wildlife viewing at enthralling waterholes;
Western riding at the Nihamawasa Saloon;
swimming pool, squash court, archery;
leisurely walks and Windhoek excursions...
